dec 25 2018 would you think the next 10 days includes today if not would there be a clearer way to put it to refer to today and the following 9 days there s also the perennial question of whether the last day ends on the multiple of 24 hours from the time when the deadline was given if it means midnight of that day or closing time of that day or apr 29 2015 i would read the first as referring to a deadline the second referring to a total accumulation of days spent for example this project must be finished within 30 days is different feb 21 2016 the most natural thing to do would be to take them in the order specified so first go a month from today and then go 10 days this goes to march 30th as a general presumption take dec 5 2011 0 today is monday last week is strictly the period of seven days ending at midnight on sunday and the last two weeks is strictly the period of fourteen days ending at midnight on sunday

i understand that you can say within 30 days of receiving your application but i am seeing more and more within 30 days after your application is received is the latter grammatical jan 5 2016 i often use google hit counts as a rough measure of how valid an expression is in the case of no later than vs not later than google finds 25 vs 12 million hits indicating that both may 23 2017 so let s say today is monday and there will be a party on friday how should i say when the party is the party is in 3 days or the party is in 4 days also is this sequence of time periods c hence if within two working days were said on a thursday it would probably mean before the end of monday in conclusion the expression within the next two days does not have an exact meaning but feb 2 2023 it is a bit ambiguous but given that the system would not allow you to complete the form 12 days before your planned arrival the 7 day period is obviously a maximum rather than a
